Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance. The reasons for allowance are provided below to clarify the examiner's basis for allowance in light of applicant's arguments of November 3, 2003. Specifically, with reference to independent claims 1, 7, 10 and 12, none of the prior art either alone or in combination, disclose or teach of the claimed optical system or method of producing an optical system specifically including, as the distinguishing feature in combination with the other limitations, the claimed second optical lens having a first convex portion on one surface and a second convex portion on another surface opposing the one surface. Specifically, with reference to independent claim 11, none of the prior art either alone or in combination, disclose or teach of the claimed method of producing an optical system specifically including, as the distinguishing feature in combination with the other limitations, the adhesive bonding of the outer circumference portion of the first optical lens and the outer circumference portion of the second optical lens to opposite ends of a ring-shaped intermediate member. Specifically, with reference to independent claims 13, none of the prior art either alone or in combination disclose or teach of the claimed optical system having the claimed first and second optical lenses with the specific structure as claimed, the outer circumferences fixed in place relative to one another as claimed, and specifically further with the claimed optical lenses in an optical pickup comprising the claimed laser, optical system for focusing and photodetector.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
